1. WELCOME FROM THE PUBLISHER

Hello, Loyal Colleagues, Fabulous Friends and Cheering Fans,

Thank you to everyone who continues to spread the word about this e-newsletter (our sixteenth year of publishing and issue No. 178!) by talking about it, forwarding it on to colleagues or recommending it to your collaborators.

For those who just signed on, "Borderbuster" is produced by author, speaker and educator Laurel Delaney -- herself a successful small business owner with more than thirty years of experience in taking on the world with her knowledge, products and services. Every month, Laurel briefs you on the basics in all aspects of running a global business -- from finding customers to keeping them, from shipping products to getting paid, from learning about a different culture to becoming a true global "netizen."

Many of the articles featured here are marked subscriber exclusive, which means they do not appear on the GlobeTrade.com site or the Global Small Business Blog (<http://www.global-small-business-blog.com>) -- an added value for members only. If you are too busy to tackle everything here, reference the website or the blog to get your global dose for the month.

In our January issue, "Borderbuster" focuses on: 25 common American customs that are considered offensive in other countries; startup tips for going global; and how U-Freight spots ecommerce logistics opportunities. Our special feature this month: "Prepping for the Trans-Pacific Partnership: How to Tweak Your Website" by Laurel Delaney for the GoDaddy small business site (refer to No. 6).

Contact Laurel with questions, complaints, sound-offs, contributions and compliments concerning "Borderbuster." She'd love to hear from you, so go on and make her day! Her e-mail address is ldelaney@globetrade.com (<mailto:ldelaney@globetrade.com>).

Let's revolutionize our thinking, get started, bust a border and go global!

Get your global mojo in 2017,
The Team at GlobeTrade.com

This month's focus: Stargazing

Top Ancient Sites for Stargazing

1. Chaco Canyon, New Mexico

All of Chaco Culture National Historical Park in New Mexico is an International Dark-Sky Park, a natural darkness zone with no permanent outdoor lighting. It features a public observatory, astronomy festival, and stargazing programs in connection with native Pueblo culture and the night sky. Certain alignments on Casa Rinconada kiva, a round ceremonial place, may be related to the calendar. The park is also home to the famous hand-moon-star pictograph that could represent the configuration of the crescent moon and the year 1054 supernova.

2. Almendres Cromlech, Portugal

One of the largest stone circles in Europe, dating from the sixth millennium B.C., is near the World Heritage town of Evora, as well as the Alqueva Dark Sky Reserve area. The cromlech, or circle of monoliths, has almost a hundred granite menhirs, some with carved drawings and small indentations. A four-meter-tall single monolith is isolated almost a mile to the northeast and may be aligned with the cromlech for a solstice sunrise or sunset. The cromlech of Xerez in Monsaraz is also nearby.

It is the largest and most comprehensive trade agreement ever negotiated," says Karen Kerrigan, president and CEO of the Small Business & Entrepreneurship Council. Now, the even bigger elephant on the table: How do you access customers from these 11 countries? Simple. It starts with implementing six steps on your website to demonstrate you know how to communicate with people effectively regardless of geography, culture or language, and that you are open to doing business with a few of the TPP countries.

Q: To Ask The Expert,

What's going to happen to global trade if President-elect Trump closes off all our borders?

A: From Laurel,

I have no idea because I am not so sure I fully understand your question. Even if I did, it's still a wait and see economic environment under the new American President-elect Trump. The worst thing global business owners can do is nothing. Keep moving ahead, diversify, be optimistic but not so much that you are unrealistic.
